PINEAPPLE STOCK DEAL

Davies & Co. in Control of the Pearl City Fruit Co.

T. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., has acquired control of the Pearl City Fruit Co., Ltd., having, through the Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd., purchased 285 out of the 500 shares of the company's capital stock.

For some time past the Davies house has contracted for all of the output of the Pearl City Fruit Co.'s cannery.

E. W. Jordan, James Lyle, John Emmelhuth and some others of the original stockholders still hold their respective shares.

The Pearl City Fruit Co. is one of the few survivors, perhaps the only one, of the companies and partnerships that went into pineapple cultivation on a large scale some years before annexation. When its raw fruit shipments in the early years had to pay the heavy United States duty, losses were scored often than profits. Yet several of the original incorporators stuck to the enterprise, and, since the advent of a free market on the mainland and the company's acquisitions of a well-equipped cannery, their perseverance has been rewarded with a goodly measure of success.

SALE OF CHILDREN AT SALVATION HALL

Adjutant James H. Bamberg in charge of the Hawaiian division of the Salvation Army held a very unique sale at the barracks last night. In the presence of over 400 people packing the gallery and occupying every chair, he held an auction and sold a group of children to the highest bidder. Bandmaster Harry Cannon offered fame; J. M. Martin, pleasure; Ensign Haynes, fashion; A. Frank Cooke, wealth; Mrs. Adj. Bamberg, education; Ensign Anderson, nominal Christianity; and Mrs. S. E. Damon, real Christianity.

Whereupon the auctioneer declared the last bid to be the highest and knocked down the whole lot to Mrs. Damon.

The different characters were costumed and acted out in true Salvation Army style. The remarks were at times very impressive and the entertainment closed with a bible lesson by the Adjutant.

Adjutant and Mrs. Bamberg returned yesterday morning from a hurried trip to Maui, holding meetings since the arrival of the Kinu at Waikiki, Wahee, Kahuku and Hamakua. As Maui is the Adjutant's old stamping ground, he renewed many pleasant acquaintances and reports that Capt. Wyman, who was born in the islands, and Lieut. Clark are progressing famously with the work, especially among the Hawaiians.

FEDERAL OFFICERS MUST NOT COACH

Coaching of civil service candidates by Federal employees is prohibited by an executive order, according to the following circular received by U. S. Marshal Hendry in yesterday's mail:

"Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., October 17, 1905.

"To all Officers and Employees of the Department of Justice:

"Your attention is directed to the following order issued by the President:

"EXECUTIVE ORDER.

"No officer or employee of the Government shall, directly or indirectly, instruct or be concerned in any manner in the instruction of any person, or class of persons, with a view to their special preparation for the examinations of the United States Civil Service Commission.

"The fact that any officer or employee is found so engaged shall be considered sufficient cause for his removal from the service.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"The White House, October 13, 1905.

"It is expected and required that all officers and employees of this Department shall act in entire conformity with the above order.

"United States Marshals and United States Marshals are directed to post conspicuously in their respective offices a copy of this circular, and to use every available means to secure compliance therewith.

"Respectfully,
"W. H. MOODY,
"Attorney General."

E. M. Shaw, chief clerk in the office of Captain A. P. Niblack, U. S. N., assistant to the inspector for the 12th lighthouse district, will shortly sever his connection with the lighthouse establishment after fifteen years faithful service. Mr. Shaw came down here from the San Francisco office to install the routine in Hawaii nearly two years ago and the present efficiency of the service, which is a great improvement over old conditions, is to a large measure due to Mr. Shaw's mastery of the intricate details of the office work. He left for a vacation last year intending to quit the service then, but at the urgent request of his superiors returned to his post in Hawaii. Mr. Shaw has made many warm friends here who will miss him, as well as the local lighthouse officials. His successor is expected to arrive next week.
